EXPORTATION OF GOLD.

The discussion of the financial question in Congress brings facts to the front which many have overlooked. The belief is prevalent that the exportation of gold from the United States to Europe was merely nominal until 1893. Senator Vest of Missouri in a speech in the Senate a few days ago proved from official statements of the Treasury Department that this belief is erroneous. Under Cleveland's first administration only $9,000,000 of gold was shipped out of the United States. At the close of his first term the Treasury was overflowing with gold, the national debt was being steadily reduced, and "the condition, not theory," that confronted the Government was to get rid of the surplus. During the four years of Harrison's administration the gold shipments from the United States to Europe amounted to $213,000,000. At the commencement of Cleveland's second term, just three years ago, the gold in the Treasury was reduced to within a few millions of the $100,000,000 reserve, and it is stated that bonds were prepared by Secretary Foster a few months before he retired from the Treasury to be sold for gold. Now during the three years of Cleveland's second administration $181,000,000 of gold has been exported, making the exportations for seven years under Cleveland $190,000,000, and for four years under Harrison $213,000,000. In seven years, under the single gold standard, about $100,000,000 of gold has been exported from the United States, and the drain continues uninterrupted. Should the gold standard policy prevail for seven years more there would scarcely be a $20-piece left in the United States, and the bonded debt would be increased proportionately with the exportations of gold.

In 1893, when Congress was convened to repeal the Bullion Purchase Act, Senator Sherman and others, who are held up to the public as the greatest living financiers, told the people in Congress and on the platform that the passage of the Repeal bill would restore confidence. Well, the bill passed after a three months' struggle, in which the silver men were overpowered by superior numbers. It did not restore confidence, however, and since its passage $162,500,000 in bonds have been issued for gold to export to Europe. Now every Republican on the Senate Finance Committee declares that the passage of an Act to prohibit the issuance of bonds would be a virtual repeal of the Resumption Act. So that to maintain confidence interest-bearing bonds, payable in gold, must be issued every time the gold trust desires to make an investment. An unscrupulous combination of money lenders on both sides of the Atlantic controls the financial policy of the United States and uses the machinery of the Government to further its schemes.

THE PRESIDENTIAL PROPHET.

Dr. Keiser of Washington City is known as the Presidential prophet. He is a noted spiritualist and he claims by virtue of his communications with spirit land to foretell future events. While people who have no wheels in their heads will dispute this claim, they admit that Dr. Keiser is a good guesser if nothing more. He has foretold all Presidential nominations for the last twenty-five years and his prediction early in 1880 that General Garfield would be the Republican candidate for President attracted much attention. Possibly he knew of the conspiracy, which Senator Sherman refers to in his reminiscences, to nominate Garfield and in that way acquired his knowledge from the bosses rather than from the spirits, but at any rate his prediction was verified at the Republican National Convention. Dr. Keiser also predicted the nomination of Grover Cleveland and now he says Senator Callom of Illinois is to be the leader of the Republicans at the ensuing Presidential election.

Dr. Keiser is not a crank nor is he seeking notoriety, so those who are acquainted with him say. He is a believer in spiritualism and his confidence in the revelation of the spirit world. He is not acquainted with Senator Callom, but he is confident that he will be the nominee of the Republican party for President when the National Convention meets.

THE LATEST FAKE.

Our Nevada gold friends propose to try a new trick. It is called "the home rule fake." The refusal of their friends in Congress to pass a free coinage bill and their declaration that they will not pass a tariff bill with a free silver attachment has left the Nevada contingent stalled in the mire. Like the young fellow who went courting and asked the girl if she wanted to buy a shirt collar, they must say something just to keep talking and that something just now is "home rule." The cry, it is true, is as ridiculous as the young fellow's question, but it makes sound and that's something. Some of those who are making the noise are residents of Nevada, not from choice, but necessity, and more of them gave the people illustrations of their idea of home rule at the last election. One of the loudest sounders of home rule wanted a Federal office in Utah and swore vengeance against everything Republican because the place was given to a resident of the Territory. Another came from California to take a place in the mint, though Nevadans wanted it, and a third changed his place of residence just in time to make him eligible as a candidate against old settlers. But why extend the list? The absurdity of those people shouting home rule is too apparent to be taken seriously by anyone with as much brains as a chimpanzee.

CONGRESSIONAL PROCEEDINGS.

Lively Debate in the Senate.

WASHINGTON, February 26.—In the Senate to-day Allen said that he would assure sufficient Populist votes to give a majority in the Senate if the passage of the tariff bill was accompanied by the adoption of a free silver amendment.

"The Populist Senators are ready to swallow your nauseating and unjust tariff measure," said Allen, "if you will place silver on equal terms with gold."

Baker asked if Allen would agree to deliver six Populist votes for the tariff bill with an amendment restricting the coinage to the silver produced by American mines.

Allen replied no. Lindsay offered an amendment to the tariff resolution of Carter, directing the Finance Committee to report back the repeal of the one-eighth differential duty on sugar. Carter took the floor for a speech defining his attitude on the tariff bill. He spoke with great earnestness and deliberateness. His statement that he had no apologies to offer was delivered with explosive force. He said that during the business depression of the last two years "a spark of genius appeared in one of the most determined men that this country has ever known."

"When the history of our times shall be written Cleveland will be accorded the honor of having displayed the most marvelous political tact of any man of his time." He said that the Republicans had not maintained the Minneapolis platform declaring for bimetalism, and he declared that if the party platform in St. Louis announces that the Minneapolis plank on bimetalism was a delusion, fraud and snare, then it would be better for the Republican party at St. Louis to make no nomination for President.

A debate occurred between Foster and Sherman, the former saying that the latter had become a gold monometallist, and Sherman replying that he, like all bimetalists, wanted a dollar worth a dollar. Sherman declared that every State east of the Missouri river was for bimetalism, as he understood it, and that there was a growing feeling of doubt in the silver States as to the advantages of the free coinage of silver.

Brothers Kill Each Other.

LONDON, Ky., February 26.—Malford and Felix Fee, brothers, were shot to death by each other on Slater's Fork, nine miles above Harlan Courthouse yesterday, and John Fee, a cousin of the two men, was seriously injured while acting in the role of peacemaker. The Fee brothers were under the influence of whisky at the time.

Burned by a Prairie Fire.

FORT WORTH, Texas, February 26.—News has been received here of the death by prairie fire of three Mexicans near Laguna Coronadas, Hockley county. The men went into camp and while asleep the grass was ignited by sparks from their camp fire, and before they could escape they were so badly burned that all died in a short time.

Accidentally Strangled.

PITTSBURG, February 26.—Olevan Rossman, the 12-year-old son of Josiah Rossman of Farmers Mills, was found hanging in his father's barn, dead. It is supposed the boy had been swinging and in some way fell, the strap forming a noose around his neck.

The robbers were surrounded and captured nine miles from town. They were taken to Wichita Falls, where a mob gathered to lynch them, but the State Rangers guarded the prisoners and prevented an attack on the jail.

The brake on a motor car filled with passengers at Cleveland, Ohio, failed to work while descending a steep grade. The car plunged forward, crashing into a heavily loaded truck which it plowed its way through and then struck a coal wagon. The driver of the truck was hurt, but the motor-man remained at his post and the conductor kept the passengers from jumping off the car so that no one was injured.

Viavi is more of a food than a medicine. I should be glad to have those who do not understand its use, call and get a Health Book free and read the home testimonials. Viavi sales in 1895 exceeded those in 1894 by half a million dollars. Mrs. B. E. HUNT. Fourth Street.

Syrup of Figs

Gladness Comes

With a better understanding of the transient nature of the many physical ills which vanish before proper efforts—gentle efforts—pleasant efforts—rightly directed. There is comfort in the knowledge that so many forms of sickness are not due to any actual disease, but simply to a constipated condition of the system, which the pleasant family laxative, Syrup of Figs, promptly removes. That is why it is the only remedy with millions of families, and is everywhere esteemed so highly by all who value good health. Its beneficial effects are due to the fact, that it is the one remedy which promotes internal cleanliness, without debilitating the organs on which it acts. It is therefore all important, in order to get its beneficial effects, to note when you purchase that you have the genuine article, which is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, and sold by all reputable druggists.

If in the enjoyment of good health, and the system is regular, then laxatives or other remedies are not needed. If afflicted with any actual disease, one may be commended to the most skillful physicians, but if in need of a laxative, then one should have the best, and with the well-informed everywhere, Syrup of Figs stands highest and is most largely used and gives most general satisfaction.

to consumption are ailments we often deem trivial—a cold and a cough. Consumption thus acquired is rightly termed "Consumption from neglect."

not only stops a cold but it is remarkably successful in curing a cough has become deep seated.

Scott's Emulsion is the richest of fat-foods and the easiest fat-food to take. It arrests waste and builds up healthy flesh.

NORCROSS-LONKEY.

Two of Washoe County's Young People Joined in Holy Wedlock.

A quiet wedding took place at the residence of Oliver Lonkey at Verdi yesterday evening at 6 o'clock. The contracting parties were Charles A. Norcross of Reno and Miss Lydia Z. Lonkey, a niece of Mr. O. Lonkey of Verdi. Only a few intimate friends and the relatives of the couple were present. The Rev. Father Dermody officiated.

The bride is well known to Verdi and Reno and is a favorite of everyone who knows her. She has been a resident of Verdi for a number of years, and her sweet disposition and ever ready exertions for the happiness of others has made her many friends who will wish her a long and happy wedded life, and while her husband is to be congratulated on winning such a bride, she in turn must be congratulated in her choice of a husband.

Charles A. Norcross is so well known in Washoe county that his name is almost as familiar to every resident as their own. He was born in this valley, educated in the schools and has grown to manhood here, and is the only native son of the county that has ever been honored by being elected as one of the representatives in the State Legislature. He is a writer of ability and thoroughly posted on general affairs. He is an ambitious young man and has excellent prospects and now that he has so valuable an adviser and helper, his successful future is doubly assured.

The JOURNAL feels it an especial privilege to be the first to announce the marriage of Mr. Norcross and Miss Lonkey for the gentleman was at one time connected with the office and seems in a measure to belong to us, yet we relinquish our claim to him and freely consent to this union, believing that he has formed a life partnership that must surely be the best step he has yet taken. We extend congratulations and hope that the journey of Mr. and Mrs. Norcross through their wedded life will be one of unceasing happiness and prosperity.

Captain and Mrs. Ames Go to Another Field.

Captain and Mrs. Ames of the Salvation Army took their departure last evening for Placerville, where they have been assigned for work in the good cause. They have been stationed in Reno for some time and have labored faithfully and accomplished great good. They have built up the army in Reno and awakened a strong interest in their followers, and have gained the admiration and good wishes of the masses. They both leave many friends in Reno outside of the army circle, who last night wished them Godspeed in their new home. They were escorted to the depot by the members here, and just before stepping upon the train all dropped on their knees and Mrs. Ames prayed fervently for all of the kind friends they were leaving. The crowd on the platform stood by in respectful silence, and a number were deeply moved by the scene. As the train pulled out a chorus of halloos rang out as a farewell and were answered by the Captain and his wife.

Y. M. C. A. Notes.

The Executive Committee has secured the two large rooms on the west side of the Bank of Nevada Building at the rear of the bank. These rooms are being improved and decorated, and when finished will make pleasant and comfortable quarters for the association. One of the rooms will be fitted up as a library and reading-room, be well supplied with magazines and newspapers and kept open to the public.

The Twentieth Century Club at its last meeting voted to turn the management of the Public Library over to the association. This will be a great addition to the reading-room of the association and enlarge the usefulness of the library.

There are now 44 names on the membership list and many more young men are expected to join soon.

The committee is endeavoring to have the rooms ready for occupancy by Monday, March 24, at which time it is designed to throw the rooms open and extend a general invitation to the public to inspect them.

The Governor Improving.

News comes from Governor Jones that he is gaining rapidly. He takes short walks and spends much of his time in reading papers. Last Friday he walked five blocks and did not suffer any great fatigue. Mrs. Dr. Cook, his physician, may well feel proud of her success, when the most prominent physicians in San Francisco pronounced his case hopeless. It is expected that the Governor will soon return to Carson as well and strong as he ever was.

The Vaughan Case to be Told Here. Judge Cheney was informed yesterday that the Vaughan case has been transferred from Lander county to this for trial. The case has been tried twice at Austin and the defendant convicted of murder in the first degree at each trial. It is conceded that it would be impossible to get a third jury to try the case in Lander county, hence the change of venue to this county.

Last Saturday night in Jordan Valley, Idaho, a man named Keller was shot and instantly killed by Chas. Craig. Saturday Keller went out hunting and arrived at Craig's cabin after the latter had gone to bed. To awaken him Keller prodded Craig in the ribs with his gun. Craig awoke with a start and seeing a man standing over him with a gun in his hand grabbed a revolver and fired, and Keller fell forward dead.

Henry Cotterell of Edinburg, Indiana, died Monday afternoon of softening of the brain due to excessive cigarette smoking. A post mortem examination was held and a peculiar condition was discovered. The pericardial sack was enlarged until it held about a gallon of water, and the heart was abnormally contracted. A fatty growth had also formed, and both the lungs and spleen were enlarged and weakened by the disease.

During the year there were manufactured in the country 4,180,915,203 cigars, 3,765,911,677 cigarettes, 256,160,605 pounds of tobacco and 12,705,414 pounds of snuff. There was an increase in the output of cigarettes of 435,768,077 over 1894, and a decrease of 477,163 pounds in the amount of snuff manufactured.

Believing that by fasting and prayer that she could cure herself of dyspepsia, Mrs. Valentine Kurtz abstained from food for forty-six days. She says she once before cured herself of a similar ailment by fasting. She has been confined to her bed for a year and a half, when she tried the faith cure and soon recovered. She seems to be standing the strain remarkably well. She is emaciated and is confined to her bed, but she can get up and wait on herself.

ACTIVE VOLCANOES.

Ten Thousand Craters Ejecting Mud, Flame and Water.

The Yuma, Arizona, dispatch says the Cocopah volcano, seventy-five miles southwest from Yuma city, are in violent eruption. Those on the plains are throwing out water, stone and mud, while the dry craters and solitary ones in the mountain range pour smoke forth by day and flame by night, plainly seen at a point fifteen miles west of Yuma. There are 10,000 of these volcanoes on this plain, twenty-five miles north of the base of the mountains. They are active only at times, when the roar of their workings can be heard for twenty miles.

Two Lives Saved.

Mrs. Phoebe Thomas, of Junction City, Ill., was told by her doctors she had consumption and that there was no hope for her, but two bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery completely cured her, and she says it saved her life. Mr. Thos. Eggers, 189 Florida St. San Francisco, suffered from a dreadful cold, approaching consumption, tried without result everything else, then bought one bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery and in two weeks was cured. He is naturally thankful. It is such results, of which these are samples, that prove the wonderful efficacy of this remedy for coughs and colds. Free trial bottles at Hodgkinson's Drug Store.
